

Bryan Dangerous Bio

Bryan Dangerous began his training at Patapsco High School & Center for the Performing Arts. Upon graduating with honors he was awarded scholarships like the Maryland Distinguished Scholar in the Arts, but chose instead to attend Ringling Bros. Clown College. He completed the crash course in higher hilarity and was selected to perform with Ringling Bros. Circus which lasted for 6 years.

After the circus Bryan Dangerous moved to Las Vegas, NV to continue his performing career. He was cast in a supporting role in Tony & Tina's Wedding at the Rio Hotel & Casino and began performing at trade shows and corporate functions all over town.

Looking for more than the hustle and bustle of Vegas Bryan Dangerous moved to the east coast and began performing for colleges and festivals. He now owns and operates a booking agency in South Carolina and performs his special brand of comedy juggling all over the world.
